How to pay for the T

Subway, bus, Commuter Rail and ferry in the Boston area

Prices checked October 2026

One ride

Subway	Bus	Express bus	Commuter Rail	Ferry
$2.40	$1.70	$1.70	$2.40–$13.25	$2.40–$9.75
		Same as bus for now	Pay in the mTicket app	Depends on the route

Which pass?

Ride a few times a week? Just tap. Ride almost every day? Get a pass.

Pass	Price	Rides on	Good deal if you ride
1-Day Pass	$11	Subway and bus	5 or more subway rides in 1 day
7-Day Pass	$22.50	Subway and bus	5 or more round trips in 7 days
Monthly LinkPass	$90	Subway and bus	A round trip on 19 or more days a month
Monthly Bus Pass	$55	Bus only	A bus round trip on 17 or more days a month

Round trip = there and back. Passes go on a CharlieCard or CharlieTicket, not on a bank card or phone.

How to pay

Tap your bank card or phone
Touch it to the reader. One tap pays one ride.

CharlieCard (plastic)
Reusable. Add money or a pass. Get one from a station machine or staff.

CharlieTicket (paper)
From any station machine. For a few rides or a 1-day pass.

Changing buses or trains

Change within 2 hours and pay less.

Bus → Subway	Pay $0.70 more
Subway → Bus	Free
Bus → Bus	Free

Tap the same card or phone each time. No discount with cash.

Ride free or pay less

Ride free

- Children 11 and younger
- People who are legally blind, and a guide
- Age 75 and older with a Mass ID, no license
- Active-duty military
- Police and firefighters in uniform

Pay about half

$1.10 subway · $0.85 bus · $30 a month

- Age 65 and older
- People with a disability or a Medicare card
- Age 18 to 64 on SNAP, MassHealth or other aid
- Middle and high school students: ask your school

First get a card at mbta.com/fares/reduced or call 617-222-3200 (help in 160+ languages).

Have a job? Ask your employer about commuter benefits. Many pay part of your pass or let you buy it before taxes. In college? Ask your school about a lower-price student pass.

Shift >>

See when your bus or train is coming. Shift, the free app from Green Streets Initiative, shows live arrivals near you. gogreenstreets.org/shift